WHAT IS THE STORY?

What do you want to be when you grow up? Beth Thielen's answer- a Flower Farmer. Beth's love of nature-flowers, plants, animals brings a calmness to her life.

In her first career she was able to build bouquets from the flowers she grew at home. Life took her into the corporate world for several years and now she is back in the world where she finds great joy.

Beth and her husband are living on an acreage by Bagley with their cats, dogs, 4 pet turkeys, chickens, ducks, goats, and a donkey. You can find out more about Beth's life on the acreage at Thielen Acres Hobby Farm.

Beth opened Bouquets By Beth on November 1st, 2023, in Woodward. She credits her business neighbor, Joe the Barber, for notifying her that the business next door to him was for sale.

When an event or occasion calls for flowers, give Beth a call. She is ready to share her love of flowers.

WOODWARD PUBLIC LIBRARY RECEIVES NEW ITEMS THROUGH GRANT

Woodward Public Library has added many new items to its collection after receiving a grant from the American

Library Association (ALA): Libraries Transforming Communities. To help better serve the community and to serve people with disabilities the library has added many materials from the technology world. Some of these additions are:

*Digital games

*Switch games with devices needed to play

*Music CDs, with equipment needed to play

*Launch pads for elementary students, teens, and adults for educational games.

*MP3 players that patrons can check out and download their own music

*Wonderbooks for readers who want to read along while being read to

*Playaways for those who want to listen while walking

*CD audio books

*Headphones and earbuds

* Ebook titles with faster access

*Books

Thank you to all library patrons who requested materials.

All of these additions to the library's collection has been made possible by the grant from ALA:
